THE NEW BEGINE. Last Day of the Recorder's Court-Judge Mills Succeeded by Commis-

Yesterday, the tail of an eventful week the Recorder's Court, as the court of the Recorder, passed from existence, and the sonorous "Oyez! Oyez!" of the belted and buckled Metropolitan now proclaims from lay to day that the Police Court must como order under the law. The official shades o Anderson, the Norvells, Kane, Talbot Dibrell, Garrett, Woodward, Raworth, Glenn, Hays, Shane, Wilkinson and Foster were perhaps hovering nigh as the Police ssioner seized the gavel yesterday morning, but no ghostly signs were visible and the crowd looked on in a listless, disir terested way, as if it mattered little whethe fifty dollars and costs or the milder mulet of the olden time should sway the destinies if the new-fangled hocus-pocus dumped upon the devoted city of Nashville by the oudding head Legislature of the so-called state of Tennessee, backed by the army and navy of the United States, and his home on Church street, West Nashville. perhaps by the powers of Europe-who knows? for tyranny everywhere is in symwife and three children penniless. His sad pathy with all that tends to perpetuate it fate was a terrible stroke to them. Even the Bureau blushes at the shameful utrages upon popular liberty, and forgets that Howard lost an arm, and that idle blacks ever reported discharged for rivetng the fetters upon their old masters. Not to digress, we will go on and say hat the ceremonies attendant upon the in auguration of Col. Henry Stone, Superintending Commissioner, as Judge of the Police Court, were by no means imposing. There was no long palaver from either Judge Mills or the Commissioner as to their records or the deeds of by-gone days, dorious as they may have been, and no unsual promises for the future, both evidently being satisfied to draw their healthfo salaries quietly and say nothing about the wicked rebellion and their respective reponsibilities, duties and desires. The Court opened at 9 o'clock, Judge Mills taking the chair and briefly stating that in accordance with an act of the Legislature the duties of Judge of the Cour would hereafter devolve upon the Metropolitan Police Commissioner, his successor He concluded by introducing Col. Stone, commending him as an officer of capacity and judgment, who would faithfully exe cute the law.

Col. Stone then took the vacated seat of Judge Mills, merely announcing that he did so in pursuance of an act of the Legis ature, and promising to execute the law ustly, faithfully and impartially. The ceremonies over, Judge Mills re ired to his check-, licenses and records while the business of the Court went on with the following result:

Joe. Phillips, Jr., disorderly, fined $5. Archie Phillips, same, $5. J. H. Douglas, same, $5. Isaac Johnson, lewdness, discharged. Richard Banks, disorderly, $25. Alfred Davenport, same, discharged. James Lacy, same, $10. Frank Myers, same, discharged. Chas. B. McGinnis, same, discharged. Ann Cunningham, drunk on street, $3. Wm. McGowan, larceny, discharged.

Ezelle Hadley, larceny, continued until PASTOR OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH -The First Baptist Church in this city elected, not long since, to its pastorship, or so pastor of the Baptist church in the city of Raleigh, North Carolina. He is a native of that State, having been born and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, in the arts; etudied Divinity in Union Seminary, New York, where his ancle, the distinguished Dr. Skinner, o that city, has been pastor of a Presbyterian church for more than a quarter of a century, and received his doctorate from Farman University in South Carolina. He is o preach his first discourset as pastor in this city on the first Lord's day in Novemper, which will be the fourth day of that nonth. The church organs everywhere peak of him in the highest terms. The ollowing is an article from the Religious Herald of Richmond, Va., Oct. 10th, which our citizens will, doubtless, be gratified to "Rev. Thos. E. Skinner, D.D.-The Saptist cause in North Carolina sustains a neavy loss by Rev. Dr. Skinner's acceptance of a call to the pastorate of the First Baptis Church, Nashville, Tena. Dr. S. has e feeted a vast work in Raleigh, and indeed throughout the State. Few men among u are so singularly adapted to fill with suc sess the position made vacant by Dr Howell's resignation. His influence will be felt, not only in Nashville, but in every portion of the State. With the cordial upport of his brethren and the blessing of the Lord, we feel assured that Dr. Skinner will be a great blessing to the Baptist cause n the West. Thoroughly conservative in nis views and feelings, and yet a most de cided and uncompromising Baptist, he will find his way to the hearts of all classes of Terrible Death of a Brakeman on the Nashville and Northwestern Road. As the morning train, which left here vesterday morning, for Hickman, Ky., neared Vaughin's Gap, a station ten miles from this city, Conductor James Couch discovered lying at the side of the track, the apparently lifeless body of a man, and stopping the train, went to him so ascertain what had brought him there. He was recognized as John Casey, a brakeman of the mixed train, which passed the Gap at about eight o'clock the previous night, and from which he had fallen. His right leg was terribly crushed, and his sufferings from other injuries were very great. He had been lying there all night, unable to make himself heard, as there were no houses anywhere in the vicinity. Mr. Couch ordered a number of section hands to see that he should be taken to Nashville at once, but before they reached here the unfortunate man breathed his last. The body, on arriving here, was conveyed to Mr. Casey was a poor man, and leaves a

MORE OF IT. Arrest of Capt. Patterson-The Police Committee Indorse Alden-Litigation in Prospect. Capt. R. S. Patterson, of the old police force, was arrested yesterday by the metropolitans for releasing a workhouse prisoner on Friday. Capt. Patterson never having recognized the authority of the Alden government, made the release by virtue of his office as Captain of police, which he etill claimed to hold. He was paroled on his word of honor to appear be-fore Commissioner Stone to-morrow. The Police Committee met yesterday and in suspending Capt. Patterson for disrespect shown in refusing to answer his summons on the day of inauguration. One of the Metropolitan Police force, named Neil, resigned yesterday, weary o his belt and club and despairing of bringing his conscience to the sticking point. The old police force will bring suit for the recovery of pay for the time they were elected to serve. No protest was sent to the Mayor yesterday, but we understand it will be made. Amusements.

THE BLACK CROOK .- Last night closed glorious week for the Black Crook in Nushville. There was a packed house, o course, and big bids were made for everything like seats. A very large proportion of the audience were ladies. The special train from Clarksville brought down a splendid delegation from that place. All that has been grand, wonderful, beautiful or ludicorbefore was doubly so last night. The big frog snapped his jaws and danced around poor Greppo, the ubiquitous Dragonfin was ever leaping from the earth and as often disappearing, while Herr and Frau Van Puffengruntz quareled J. W. Bigley, away their honeymoon, and pretty Carline never before sang so sweetly. Senoretta Galletti, the wonderful danwith Signor Cardella. Auriol and Miss Devere, moved with Rev. Dr. Skinner, for the last dozen years the grace and beauty of beings of air, and Stalacta with her fairy hosts again and again hurled back the demon cohorts of the Black Crook, whom the flaming Zamiel at last plunged into the depths of brought up near the town of Hetford. He Hades, and as the horrible flames rolled back into darkness, the gorgeous palace of Dewdrops and its elfin denizens flashed out more magnificent than ever. Nobody wearies of the Black Crool

SUMMER STREET THEATRE,-Marsha & Doyle's Mikado Troupe of Japanese numbering twenty-four male and female performers, will make its advent at the numer Street Theatre to-morrow night. The feats of this troupe are said to be extraordinary, as well as attractive, and the entertainment promises to be one of rare

PICKPOCKETS ARRESTED AND RELEASED. -Three pickpockets from Memphis were arrested yesterday by detectives Cheatham and Ryan as they were getting aboard the Louisville train. They were suspected of robbing Mr. Amos, the Georgia man, on Friday. Mr. A. having left town, however, and their identity not being fully established, they were released.

DECIDEDLY MIXED .- The new concern is in a quandary. Mills is getting $4000 per annum for holding a court which he don't hold. Col. Stone draws heavily too, and they say they cannot legally reduce the salary of any officer after his election. The metropolitans were given up at the time Mills was put in the chair, and the

Cooper's Resignation.-It is said that the resignation of Gen. Cooper, as commander in chief of the militia, will not be acted upon until the result of the senatorial contest is announced. Major J. T. Robinson is spoken of as his successor,

STEALING THUNDER.—The friends of the new city government imagine the reduction of the salaries of a number of officers an unparalleled stroke of poliy, and one which nobody ever thought of until the inauguration of the municipal legislature, though this retrenchment is nothing more than any Council would have made. The old Council abolished the detective police system almost immediately upon their advent, and a bill for the reduction of salaries of nearly a the officers of the corporation was intro-duced in that body months ago, but was not acted upon from the fact that it was pderstood that the succeeding Council, which a majority then believed would be Conservative, would, and could more properly, effect the desired reduction. Beyond the good sense of the new Council in carrying out the policy marked out by the old, we see no reason whatever for awarding them the credit they claim. TRUE INDUSTRY. - There is an old colored woman in this city, who, though an invalid, and long afflicted with white scrofula, realizes from fifty to seventy-five cents per day from the bits of rags and castaway articles she picks up on the streets. Such industry certainly deserves reward.

Pios and Ducks.-James Conner, a pare-headed, bare-footed, and coatless wight, was brought before Justice Cassetty vesterday on a charge of attempting to steal pigs and ducks from Henry Smith. On conviction, he was fined $10 and costs. CIRCUIT COURT.

The Williams Will Case Again. The Circuit Court met yesterday at clock, Judge M. M. Brien, presiding. The minutes were read and also the following

"The court hereby orders and appoints a special term of this court to commence on the fourth Monday in November. The court, however, will not now order the appointment or summoning of juries: but court will open for the regular dispatch of business, but no party will be forced to try a cause at said special term, only such causes as parties on both sides are ready and consent to try, and all ex parte business." The roll of attorneys was called and con siderable business disposed of. The Williams will case, which excited so much interest at the last term of the court again came up. Mrs. Cinthia P. Williams made her will in this State. She and her husband then went to Philadelphia and were there at her death. Her will was probated in common form in Pennsylvania and was brought here to be probated in solemn form, as her real property was here and most of her personal, but the probate was contested, and at the trial it was decided that undue influence had been used in the procurement of the will and it was therefore broken. The case comes before the Court now on application for manda-mus to compel the Judge of the County Court to permit to be recorded an authenticated copy of the will as probated in Pennsylvania, claiming in the argument that the law of the domicil of a party controls in the disposition of personal pro-

That Mrs. Williams' domicil was in Pennsylvania, and that the probate of the will there was good in disposing of her personal property, and that the decision against the will here only affected that part of the will which the law required should be probated here, viz: that as to real property. It was claimed on the other side that formally approved the action of the Mayor mandamus could only be to compel an officer to do what it was his legal duty to do. That any one interested to contest the validity of a will to be registered here from an authenticated copy, may do so just as if it had been first offered for probate here, and that the decision upon the contest of this will had the effect to make it null and void, and, therefore, the County Court was right in not allowing it to be registered. The case is set for a full hearing on th application for mandamus on the Tuesday after the fourth Monday in November. The Court adjourned until the next reg ular term, which will commence on th fourth Monday in January. The following has been handed us for Tennessee bonds sold in New York on the 16th inst, as follows: $15,000 new at 61c, $20,000 new at 60%c, $6000 new at 60½c, $10,000 new, 2d call, at 60½c, $40,000 new at 60c, $18,000 new at 60tc, $10,000 new at 601c, and $20,000 new at 60c. Tennessee bonds have steadily declined since the election of Governor Brownlow. and the new issue are now 8c lower than the same bonds sold for on the 2d of Angust. There has not been so heavy a decline in other bonds, which fact shows that there is some cause peculiar to the management of affairs in this State that has produced the decline we have noticed. The brokers in New York are thoroughly posted in regard to the management of the finances of this State, and it is this knowledge that has brought about the decline in our bonds. If there is not a check applied to the mismanagement and extravagance of the State government, our bonds will sell for much lower prices than at The New York Tribune says, in its money article of the evening of the 16th nstant: "Money is in active demand at per cent., and borrowers are ready to pay, indirectly, higher rates. Long engagements are shunned, and call loans given a decided preference. The daily movements of banks at the Clearing House are closely noted, and those which are 'creditor' in any large amount are looked after sharply by their associates not so fortunate. Further contraction in deposits and legal tenders will naturally appear in the statement as the year draws to a close, but no decrease of millions per week in rapid succession need be expected. The banks are now moving in quite a limited sphere, and are in a position when a loan one million of legal tenders will oblige them to turn the screw so sharply that at many weak points in the commercial system something to weaken confidence will occur. The New York Post, of the afternoon o the 16th inst., says: The features of interest in Wall street are, first, the diminished activity of are active, while government bonds are unsettled and lower. The last named circomstance is by some persons ascribed to the disposition which is said to have seized some of our investors in various parts of the country to sell their government bonds and buy dividend-paying railroad shares. To what extent this alleged disposition is operating we cannot at pres-ent know. All that is certain is that for several days past there have been considerable orders to sell in the government market, and that for the present five-twen-ties and other popular Federal securities seem to be offering more freely than usual at the counters of the large dealers. There is nothing new in regard to the spurious seven-thirties. The yexed question as to responsibility is still discussed, and what will be the opinion of the legal officers of the government is not known On one side it is urged that, the notes being undoubted forgeries, and consequently without value, those dealers who have sold them to the government are sound to refund the money, and should fall back on the correspondents from whom they purchased the notes. These lealers claim that the case involves two questions-one of expediency and one of aw. As to the first, it is argued that the public securities will suffer in price very severely if the risks of the dealers and holders which are now so heavy are augdecision. On the point of law, the argu-ment is that the Treasury is in the posiion of a bank that has paid a forged check or note upon itself, in which case it can have no claim upon the innocent person from whom the spurious instrument
